MCHD will offer two Phase 1a vaccine clinics this week

The Malheur County Health Department will host two first-dose COVID-19 vaccine clinics this week, on Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 13 and 14, for people in Phase 1a of the vaccine distribution sequence.

Wednesday's Moderna vaccine clinic, located at the firehouse at the Ontario Municipal Airport, is fully booked. Roughly 100 first doses will be administered.

Thursday's Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine clinic will take place in the parking garage at Saint Alphonsus Medical Center-Ontario and will be open from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., or until vaccine runs out. It will operate on a first-come, first-served basis. A total of 360 first doses are available. Those wishing to be vaccinated on Thursday will need to:

- Meet the qualifications of Phase 1A
- Live or work in Malheur County
- Enter the parking garage using the SW 3rd Avenue entrance
- Wear a face covering at the clinic
- Remain in their vehicles for the duration of the vaccine process
- Bring medical insurance information to the clinic
- Be available for the second dose 21 days later, on Feb. 4

Additional confirmed COVID-19 vaccine clinics:

- Jan. 21: Moderna vaccine, 100 first doses. First-come, first-served at Ontario Municipal Airport firehouse
